EMERGING FILMS

One of our primary missions at the Parkway is to give a year-round home to the kinds of work we champion during the annual Maryland Film Festival: visionary independent films from emerging voices, as well as the latest works from international mavericks and masters!

2017 SUNDANCE SHORT FILMS TOUR

Various, International, 2017, 95 minutes

The 2017 Sundance Film Festival Short Film Tour is a 95-minute theatrical program of seven short films selected from this year's Festival, widely considered the premier showcase for short films and the launchpad for many now-prominent independent filmmakers for more than 30 years. Including fiction, documentary and animation from around the world, the 2017 program offers new audiences a taste of what the Festival offers, from laugh-out-loud comedy to contemplative reflections of the world we live in. Featuring the directorial debut of Kristen Stewart, TV On The Radio's Tunde Adebimpe and films from the U.S., Chile, Sweden, Canada and Poland! Screening all week! ICAROS: A VISION

Leonor Caraballo & Matteo Norzi, USA/Peru, 2016, 91 minutes

Looking for a miracle, Angelina lands at a healing center in the Peruvian Amazon where shamans minister to a group of foreign psychonauts seeking transcendence, companionship, and the secrets of life and death. Her perceptions altered by the ancient psychedelic plant known as ayahuasca, she bonds with Arturo, a young indigenous shaman who is losing his eyesight. In their hallucinogenic journeys together they attain a different sense of their destinies. She learns to accept her fears while Arturo, in turn, realizes that he will be able to see in the dark and sing his ceremonial healing songs, the icaros. "Mesmerizing...You'll come out of it with your head spinning, in a good way." Neil Genzlinger, The New York Times

CITIZEN JANE

Matt Tyrnauer, USA, 2016, 92 minutes

Citizen Jane is a timely tale of what can happen when engaged citizens fight the power for the sake of a better world. Arguably no one did more to shape our understanding of the modern American city than Jane Jacobs, the visionary activist and writer who fought to preserve urban communities in the face of destructive development projects. Director Matt Tyrnauer (Valentino: The Last Emperor) vividly brings to life Jacobs' 1960s showdown with ruthless construction kingpin Robert Moses over his plan to raze lower Manhattan to make way for a highway, a dramatic struggle over the very soul of the neighborhood.

AFTER THE STORM

Hirokazu Koreeda, 2016, Japan, 117 minutes, DCP

The latest film from the director of After Life, Nobody Knows, and Still Walking! Dwelling on his past glory as a prize-winning author, Ryota (Hiroshi Abe) wastes the money he makes as a private detective on gambling and can barely pay child support. After the death of his father, his aging mother (Kirin Kiki) and beautiful ex-wife (Yoko Make) seem to be moving on with their lives. Renewing contact with his initially distrustful family, Ryota struggles to take back control of his existence and to find a lasting place in the life of his young son (Taiyo Yoshizawa)—until a stormy summer night offers them a chance to truly bond again.
