About the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Parkway:

The Maryland Film Festival (MdFF) is restoring and developing the historic Parkway Theatre into the Stavros Niarchos Foundation Parkway. This renovated theater, located in the geographic center of Baltimore, will serve as a film-focused hub for filmmakers, students and the Baltimore community in the growing Station North Arts and Entertainment District. The Parkway opens on May 3, 2017 to host the 19th Annual Film Festival and will be open year-round after the festival. The Parkway's curated, bold programming will showcase films from every era, region, and genre, with a focus on independent, international, documentary, classic, and cult-favorite films, providing audiences with a fresh and immersive new window into the art form.
